Traditional style meets modern performance

Edventure™ brings traditional style to today's learning spaces. The collection of teacher desks, storage lecterns, student desks and study carrels is built to withstand daily use year after year. Edventure respects space requirements and meets budget demands without sacrificing performance.

Transition seamlessly between lessons with Edventure teacher desks and storage lecterns. Offered in several worksurface sizes with a modesty panel, the teacher desk gives instructors the space they need. For additional workspace, the Edventure storage lectern keeps teaching materials organized and personal belongings secure. Available with optional casters for the flexibility to use anywhere in the classroom.

Excels in demanding environments

Edventure excels in demanding learning environments. Student desks feature ample workspace and legroom while maintaining a compact footprint. Backed by Global's Lifetime Warranty, Edventure is built to withstand daily use in today's learning spaces.

Finding a quiet retreat

Edventure study carrels provide a quiet place to focus. Modern learners can access power, USB and data options at the surface with an optional daisy-chain power solution. Study carrels eliminate clutter with wire management below the surface and have optional shelves that accommodate LED task lights. Available in multiple widths, carrels can be used separately or linked together to create study areas.
